INFORMAL HOUSING

1. Does your country have informal housing? If so how do you define it?

There is no informal housing in Norway.

All people that cannot provide a home wants a home will get help from the government do so.

... Though, a minor problem with Romani-people (travellers) in the summer time.

2. What percentage of your housing stock would you consider informal housing?

0%

3. How does your country address individuals that do not have access to formal housing?

The local governments are responsible for all social housing.

The Norwegian State Housing Bank has means to help people that need housing.
